YOHO

Welcome to YOHO YONKER'S SOHO

The former Alexander Smith Carpet Mills complex in Yonkers, abandoned in the 1950's and now the center of an emerging arts scene in southern Westchester. If you are looking for an artist work studio, creative office space, flex or mixed use space in the City of Yonkers, look no further than 578 Nepperhan Avenue, home of the YOHO Center of the Arts. The YOHO artist collective is 60 person group of artists, ranging from painting, mixed media, photography, sculpture, water colors, oil pastels, musicians, textile art, collage, to stained glass. Renting a studio at the YOHO Center of the Arts is much more than just renting a space; you join a community of like-minded artistic creative people who quickly become friends and extended family.
